

ASHURST CE AIDED PRIMARY SCHOOL

EQUALITY

STATEMENT & POLICY

DECEMBER 2017

Introduction:

In all matters, Ashurst CE Aided Primary School will not discriminate on grounds of difference in 'protected characteristics' (PSED, Public Sector Equality Duty April 2011).

'Protected characteristics' are defined by the Equality Act as 'all aspects of a person's identity'.

The school will endeavour always to behave in accordance with the government's most recent 'Equality Act'.

Objectives:

At Ashurst CE Aided Primary we will:

- Continuously strive to ensure everyone associated with the school is treated fairly, with dignity and respect.
- Continuously strive to ensure we promote excellent relationships between and amongst all associated with the school.
- Continuously strive to ensure all groups of pupils make at least good progress across the curriculum and the school.
- Continuously strive to promote the spiritual, moral, social and cultural development of all pupils through a highly enriched curriculum which includes a diverse range of extra-curricular opportunities.

This Statement and Policy will be reviewed annually.

Next Review December 2018

Responsibility of: The Governing Body
